Art Unit: 1755

This action is in response to applicants' amendment of 17 November 2005. The amendments to the claims have overcome the previous rejections.

The amendment to the claims filed on 11/17/05 does not comply with the requirements of 37 CFR 1.121(c) because the change to the amount of b is not marked in claim 1. Amendments to the claims filed on or after July 30, 2003 must comply with 37 CFR 1.121(c) which states:

(c) Claims. Amendments to a claim must be made by rewriting the entire claim with all changes (e.g., additions and deletions) as indicated in this subsection, except when the claim is being canceled. Each amendment document that includes a change to an existing claim, cancellation of an existing claim or addition of a new claim, must include a complete listing of all claims ever presented, including the text of all pending and withdrawn claims, in the application. The claim listing, including the text of the claims, in the amendment document will serve to replace all prior versions of the claims, in the application. In the claim listing, the status of every claim must be indicated after its claim number by using one of the following identifiers in a parenthetical expression: (Original), (Currently amended), (Canceled), (Withdrawn), (Previously presented), (New), and (Not entered).

(1) Claim listing. All of the claims presented in a claim listing shall be presented in ascending numerical order. Consecutive claims having the same status of "canceled" or "not entered" may be aggregated into one statement (e.g., Claims 1–5 (canceled)). The claim listing shall commence on a separate sheet of the amendment document and the sheet(s) that contain the text of any part of the claims shall not contain any other part of the amendment.

(2) When claim text with markings is required. All claims being currently amended in an amendment paper shall be presented in the claim listing, indicate a status of "currently amended," and be submitted with markings to indicate the changes that have been made relative to the immediate prior version of the claims. The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strike-through cannot be easily perceived. Only claims having the status of "currently amended," or "withdrawn" if also being amended, shall include markings. If a withdrawn claim is currently amended, its status in the claim listing may be identified as "withdrawn—currently amended."

(3) When claim text in clean version is required. The text of all pending claims not being currently amended shall be presented in the claim listing in clean version, i.e., without any markings in the presentation of text. The presentation of a clean version of any claim having the status of "original," "withdrawn" or "previously presented" will constitute an assertion that it has not been changed relative to the immediate prior version, except to omit markings that may have been present in the immediate prior version of the claims of the status of "withdrawn" or

“previously presented.” Any claim added by amendment must be indicated with the status of “new” and presented in clean version, i.e., without any underlining.

(4) When claim text shall not be presented; canceling a claim.

(i) No claim text shall be presented for any claim in the claim listing with the status of “canceled” or “not entered.”

(ii) Cancellation of a claim shall be effected by an instruction to cancel a particular claim number. Identifying the status of a claim in the claim listing as “canceled” will constitute an instruction to cancel the claim.

(5) Reinstatement of previously canceled claim. A claim which was previously canceled may be reinstated only by adding the claim as a “new” claim with a new claim number.

Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 teaches the amount of L is $0 < b < 0.01$, but part 2 of this claim teaches that L is optional. Claim 6 teaches the amount of L or L' in claim 1 is $0 \leq b \leq 0.01$. These discrepancies makes these claims indefinite.

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

There is no support in the originally filed disclosure that the solution of silicon alkoxide, rare earth carboxylate, A compound and L compound or the gel can be thermally decomposed under a reductive atmosphere. The originally filed disclosure is silent as to the thermal decomposition atmosphere in the first process (the process of claims 1-6) and there is no evidence in the art to indicate that it was known at the time of invention that thermally decomposing a solution of silicon alkoxide, rare earth carboxylate, A compound and L compound in a reducing atmosphere will form a rare earth silicate stimuable phosphor having the claimed formula. The teachings on page 16, lines 7-10 only apply to the second process (the process of claims 7-12) which produces a gel. While these lines teach firing or thermally decomposition the gel in the presence of carbon; carbon monoxide and carbon dioxide, these lines do not clearly support the claim limitation that the atmosphere is reductive, especially in light of the fact that all the examples teach the use of a slightly reductive atmosphere. A slightly reductive atmosphere is different from the claimed reductive atmosphere. Accordingly, the claimed processes contain new matter.

While it is known in the art that a rare earth silicate stimuable phosphor having the claimed formula can be produced by a solid state reaction by firing precursors selected from inorganic compounds and/or organic salts in a reductive atmosphere, this known process is different from the claimed thermal decomposition of a gel or a solution containing silicon alkoxide, rare earth carboxylates and A and L compounds.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 1755
